F. Freedman 570 Halsey St
Brooklyn

AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY
~~100 WASHINGTON SQUARE~~
NEW YORK

BROOKLYN N.Y.
MAR 31
12 30 AM
1919
STA. D

J. W. Freedman, Atty
45 Goodyear Building,
Memphis, Tenn.

Dearest Hubby: —

I'll try my best to write a decent long letter but honey, right opposite me is Helen crooing and waving her arms in delight. Lord! Joe! Where is there another baby like her? She's wonderful

What have you been doing to-day, hubby? I do hope, hubby, you had a good time. Have all your good bachelor sports — for on Tues or Sunday from to-day, your queen wife will be there — and then !! No more good times — all by yourself anymore. The time sure does begin to look short, doesn't it, hubby dear?

Have been receiving cards about 1 P.M. when Dy's sister Rose, her husband and little Beatty, came. Besides that my cousin Barney (Dy's brother) and his wife came, — Bertha (Eudora's friend) her sister, brother, mother & father also paid us a visit. Do you see we had quite a lot of company. Ray, Wendal, Helen, and Lawrence also came down. Does sort of looking around to see who's going to be married or engaged! Add to this little bunch, our own little family —— and you can imagine the handful. Anyway, everything is lively and all are having a good time. All everywhere was asking for you and send their regards. I've do with, hubby, you were here. Everywhere (except Nellie) has their hubby at their side, and my hubby is 1150 miles away. All these hubbys look their wife's but your hubby — don't look me at all, do you? not even a tiny little bit, eh?

Will write you, look, a nice big letter to-morrow. We hope everything is well with you. How love is your training?

I shall close, precious, with all my love, heart kisses because I love you oh! so much. We will be so happy when I am with you. Feel me dear, how much you love me.

Everlovingly,

Your lonesome wife.